Labor Day Confronted By Industrial Strife

West Coast Shutdown Is Chief Concern

Washington, Sept. 4—(AP)—Annoying dark clouds drifted suddenly into the industrial horizon this Labor Day weekend.

There had been rumblings of thunder, but most of the forecasts were optimistic. And then a maritime strike broke loose on the west coast and AFL teamsters struck in New York City.

Within 48 hours, 16,000 CIO-oil workers walked off the job in nine major California refineries.

The labor-management situation took a swift—though possibly brief—turn for the worse. The summer calm was ended shrilly on the eve of the 66th anniversary of labor's own holiday. In the number of big strikes besetting parts of the nation, it was the worst Labor Day since V-J Day. (There have been many other days since the war ended, however, when industrial relations looked much worse.)

Encouraging Factor Reported

An encouraging factor was reported by Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of President Truman's council of economic advisers. He said the mid-year wage settlements between unions and major industries, allowing pay increases of 11 to 15 cents an hour, have not pushed prices out of line.

Nourse was encouraged, he said, that prices "have not broken loose," but he was unable to say directly that costs would drop in the foreseeable future.

The major cause for governmental concern was the west coast maritime shutdown. It was brought on by the collapse of negotiations between Harry Bridges, San Francisco leader of the CIO-longshoremen's union, and the waterfront employers' association of the Pacific.

Prolonged Strike Disasters

A prolonged strike of the type threatened by both sides would have a paralyzing effect on the west coast and eventually would cripple dozens of U. S. industries dependent on Pacific commerce for supplies or markets.

To plague the west coast further, the oil refinery strike "within a few days" would cut off gasoline supplies in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Arizona, an industry spokesman said.

The Federal Mediation Service, which had been standing by in the oil dispute while California state mediators sought to bring the parties into agreement over wages in a new contract, named a panel of experts to try for a quick settlement.

No Settlement 'Til Tuesday

Little progress was hoped for before Tuesday, however, because government trouble-shooters had little prospect of settling the New York trucking strike before Tuesday, because of the long week-end holiday.

Mayor O'Dwyer said some chain stores would be forced to close as movement of groceries was choked off. Wages are the big issue in that dispute.

The AFL teamsters' union, headed by 73-year-old Daniel J. Tobin, is locked in a grim jurisdictional fight with the International Association of Machinists at the Boeing airplane company plant at Seattle, Wash. The machinists left the AFL three years ago.

Douglas States Brooks, Dewey Clash In Policy

Shelbyville, Ill., Sept. 4—(AP)—Paul H. Douglas, Democratic nominee for senator, said tonight that his Republican opponent, Senator C. Wayland Brooks, opposes the GOP presidential nominee and platform on foreign policy.

Douglas said in a speech prepared for delivery at a campaign rally in Shelbyville:

"There is no unity within (the Republican) party itself. In Philadelphia the Republican leaders talked a mild liberalism and in favor of international cooperation. But the behind-the-scenes power is in the hands of reactionaries and isolationists like John T. Miller, Dewey Short, Halleck and Knutson in the House, like Taft in the Senate."

GERMAN REFUGEES ON HUNGER STRIKE

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 4—(AP)—German refugees in a second camp went on a hunger strike tonight in protest against living conditions.

Five hundred inmates of the Alach camp began a hunger strike to force Bavarian authorities to give them better accommodations.

The inmates are persons of German descent who were expelled from former German territories such as the Sudetenland.

Truman And Dewey Bid For Support Of U. S. Labor

Washington, Sept. 4—(AP)—Both President Truman and his political rival, Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, bid today for support of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Truman did it by indirectness, blasting the record of the Republican-controlled congress on labor and living costs.

Gov. Dewey said he had been assured that the Dewey-Warren Republican publication ticket "will have substantial labor at the polls November 2."

The American Federation of Labor gave both presidential candidates a chance to state their case simultaneously in the current issue of the American federationist, AFL monthly magazine.

Mr. Truman said:

"The party that pressed the Taft-Hartley act upon working people over my veto and is responsible for the high cost of living, is asking labor to vote its candidates in November."

"Having inaugurated in the Republican-controlled 80th congress a blue-print for tearing down 16 years of progress under the Democratic party, the Republicans are now asking labor's support for their anti-labor policies."

Gov. Dewey made no reference by name to the Taft-Hartley act. Nor did he refer to the record of the Congress on labor and price questions.

"There are some people who seem to have lost their way in the dense fog of propaganda which has been loosed on the labor front," he commented.

The AFL has not officially endorsed President Truman for election to the presidency, as the CIO's executive board majority has done. But AFL leaders who are supporting the President's bid for a full term have formed a committee to work for his election. Chairman George Arison of that committee said that all but two or three of the AFL unions would be represented in his group.

Gulf Hurricane Subsides, Pushes Into Mississippi

New Orleans, Sept. 4—(AP)—A gulf hurricane smashed its fury against New Orleans shortly after dawn today and blew on into Mississippi a milder gale.

No fatalities or injuries were reported in New Orleans or in its wake along the South Louisiana coast northward to the city.

At the storm's peak, winds attained a steady 75-miles an hour with gusts of 90 miles whipping Moisant international airport, 12-miles west of the city.

After a preliminary survey, Mayor Lelesp Morrison estimated damage at less than $100,000. In the business district the winds ripped some signs from their moorings and broke a few plate glass windows.

Most downtown stores closed for the day. In residential sections, a few frame structures were wrecked, trees uprooted, and a few power lines blown down.

Rain Floods Streets

Nearly seven inches of rain that accompanied the storm flooded streets in some areas, and the wind-whipped waters of Lake Pontchartrain splashed over protecting seawalls at the Bucktown community where New Orleans and Jefferson parish to the west join on the lake front.

Several boats in the yacht harbor were sunk or damaged.

"The center, or 'eye,' of the hurricane passed over New Orleans about 6:15 a.m. (CST) and lasted an hour and a half. Thereafter winds renewed with force up to 65 miles an hour, but quickly died down. A drizzling rain followed, but by mid-morning the sun was shining.

Barge Crew Rites It Out

Sixty men trapped on two oil drilling barges in the gulf off Grand Isle reported they rode out the storm drinking coffee and playing cards.

Three boys and their adult companion, missing on a shrimp fishing trip from Covington, La., north of New Orleans across Lake Pontchartrain, were found safe.

While the storm hampered communications with points in its area, all available reports and a tour of the area showed that damage was largely confined to fallen trees and other minor damage.

Mitchum Would Decline To Appear Before Grand Jury

Hollywood, Sept. 4—(AP)—Actor Robert Mitchum's attorney said today the film star would decline an invitation to appear before a grand jury next week in its investigation of the narcotics case in which he and three others were involved.

The lawyer, Jerry Giesler, told newsmen "we have not had time to complete our own series of investigations surrounding some of the strange angles. In order to be fair to Mr. Mitchum we need concrete facts rather than speculation."

Giesler added, "It is unusual to take this type of case before the grand jury. Are the police doing it because Mitchum has a 'big name'?"

The grand jury is expected to inquire next Tuesday into the case in which Mitchum and the others were arrested at what police said was a marijuana smoking party.

TERRORIZE PROGRESSIVES

London, Sept. 4—(AP)—A Tass dispatch from New York declared today there is a "well organized reign of terror" under way in the United States against Henry A. Wallace and other Progressive party candidates.

The Soviet news agency said southerners who tried to break up Wallace's campaign meetings were "fascist hooligans."

Forrestal Assails Vets For Taking U.S. 'Handouts'

Chicago, Sept. 4—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Forrestal today endorsed a criticism of "handouts" for veterans made earlier by Edgar C. Corry, Jr., national commander of the Americans.

Forrestal, here for an address tonight before the fourth annual convention of the American Veterans of World War II, told a news conference:

Demand Reds, Cohorts Be Ousted From Federal Jobs

Washington, Sept. 4—(AP)—A Senate subcommittee checking on the government's "loyalty" program demanded today that all communists and their sympathizers be kicked out of federal jobs at once—and kept out.

The investigating committee composed of seven Senators said in a 29 page report that the present method of testing the loyalty of the more than 2,000,000 government employees is "inadequate" filled with "dangerous delays," and in need of speedy overhauling.

Four Republicans and three Democrats signed the report, with one of them putting in one dissent.

The suggestion that communists or others who advocate overthrow of the government by force be barred from government jobs is not new. The subcommittee noted that Congress has been trying to scratch them from the payroll since 1939 with ineffective results.

But the report differentiated between the constitutional "rights" to freedom of speech, assembly and "not to be forced to testify against oneself" and the "privilege" of working for the government.

"Today a person in our country has a right to be a communist and to speak out in behalf of communism if he violates no law such as espionage or conspiracy," the report said. "By doing so, however, he forfeits any privilege he may have had to work for the United States government."

Revolt-Ridden Burma Is 'Danger Spot' In World

Singapore, Sept. 4—(AP)—Revolt-ridden Burma in southeast Asia is becoming one of the major danger spots in a troubled world.

Authoritative information reaching this British stronghold indicates the situation is far graver in Burma than official statements admit.

Both the governments and the revolutionaries are confusing the developments with propaganda. Here is what appears to be the real situation:

The young Burmese government, beset by four separate revolts, does not have the strength to regain full control of the country for the time being. Neither do the revolutionaries, either singly or united. A deadlock is forecast, and an economically disastrous stalemate of lengthy duration seems certain.

When Britain granted Burma independence last January the white flag (Stalinist) and red flag (Trotskyist) communists had already begun armed insurrections because, they said, the more moderate leaders were making too many concessions to the British to win Burma's real independence.

He made the statement in commenting on reports published here that the United States and Britain have agreed to base an American air armada in the British Isles for the next 10 years.

The official discounted the reports that the agreement covered any fixed period such as 10 years, but told a reporter there was no doubt the U. S. Air Force is here for the duration of the east-west tension, now centered in Berlin.

Crew Bails Out; Plane Last Seen Headed For Moscow

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 4—(AP)—The possibility that a crewless American B-29 superfortress had taken off on a runaway flight in the general direction of Moscow held the attention of air force officials today.

One thing was certain. A B-29 was missing after its crew of 11 parachuted with the loss of one life yesterday near Vlissingen (Flushing) off the Netherlands coast while engaged in a mock air war over Britain.

Then came roundabout reports that eyewitnesses had seen a B-29 flying at 10,000 feet over the Hamburg, Germany, area—200 miles away and about an hour after the jump.

Other unofficial reports said the plane was seen over Lubeck, about 35 miles northeast of Hamburg.

Air force officials were inclined to believe the plane fell into the Schelde estuary where it was abandoned by its crew after engine trouble. One of its rescued crew said it fell into the water.

Dewey Strives For Support From Once Solid South

By The Associated Press

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will make a determined bid for support from the once "solid South" in the November presidential election, Republican national headquarters announced yesterday (Saturday).

Herbert Brownell, Jr., campaign manager for the Dewey-Warren ticket, said in a statement:

"Thousands of southern voters are ready to vote for Dewey and Warren and for the establishment of a real two-party system in the South."

Brownell said the Republican party will "give the South plenty of evidence of its interest" in southern problems and will send at least one top-flight speaker into every southern state.

MEN BORN IN 1925 REGISTER FOR DRAFT

Washington, Sept. 4—(AP)—Thousands of men born in 1925 registered for the draft today, and the rest of that age group will sign up next Tuesday when registration centers reopen after the Labor Day holiday.

Starting Wednesday, those born in 1926 will register for the 21-month peacetime draft.

Indicted State's Attorney Will Continue Vice Probe

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 4—(AP)—State's Attorney Roy P. Hull, indicted yesterday on charges of soliciting a bribe from a gang chief, declared today he will continue the vice and gambling probe which led to his own indictment.

"This investigation has just begun," the Peoria county prosecutor said. "Another grand jury will be charged here on Sept. 3 and I intend to continue the investigation."

Hull said he had "no fear of not being vindicated" of charges that he solicited $25,000 from Bernie Shelton, slain gangster, to effect dismissal of assault indictments against Shelton and two associates.

"My trial will give me an opportunity to face my accusers in open court. The charges against me were inspired by the Sheltons and will crumble when a full probe of gambling and its many alliances is made," Hull asserted.

Indicted along with Hull were Sheriff Earl P. Spainhower and Hull's chief investigator, Charles Somogyi. The three were charged with "omission and malfeasance in office." Spainhower in addition was charged with perjury.

The jury which returned the indictments after hearing evidence presented by a special prosecutor, recommended that the probe be continued by future juries.

Hull said he intended to carry out that request. He asserted he would direct the new jury's investigation in spite of the indictments against him.

Polish Reds Push Purge In Effort To Unite Ranks

Warsaw, Sept. 4—(AP)—Polish communists pushed a purge of their ranks today in an attempt to heal a split stemming from the communist attack against Yugoslavia.

The purge was directed against members accused of rightist and nationalist deviation from the pro-Soviet and strictly marxist policies set forth by the communist-Soviet-led propaganda association of European communist countries.

Just how many Communist party members have been dropped already is not known, but reliable estimates say the figure runs into the thousands.

Many reports were heard that Vice Premier Wladyslaw Gomułka, regarded as a "nationalist" communist, had quit the party as secretary-general. This was denied by Communist party headquarters.

However, it was announced that President Boleslaw Bierut has been summoned to return to a political role of party leadership to heal the breach.

Bierut went into conference with top ranking party officials in order to speed a merger of the communist workers' party and left wing socialists.

This merger, which has been in pending since last spring, was endangered by communists who were straying from the path set forth by the communist. Leftwing socialists were said to be suddenly wary of the merger in view of the crack in the supposedly solid communist front.

Thirty Thousand Flee Pacific Isle As Volcano Erupts

Manila, Sept. 4—(AP)—Thirty thousand persons have fled by sea from the volcano-ravaged isle of Camiguin, and the remaining 15,000 population fearfully await rescue from its ash-clad shores, the Philippines government reported tonight.

The rescue operation in the sulphurous mud is possibly the greatest of its sort ever recorded. It included a commandeered American freighter, 17 other ocean-going vessels and countless small craft.

Refugees presented a major relief problem to towns on nearby Mindanao island.

Miraculously, not a single death, nor even any injuries have been reported since the eruption began Sept. 1.

First Assembly Of World Council Of Churches Ends

Amsterdam, Sept. 4—(AP)—The first assembly of the World Council of Churches ended today with its leaders satisfied the assembly had done more to achieve spiritual unity than any other in Christian church history.

The assembly of many religious groups representing 150 Christian churches arrived at the conclusion there is no such thing as a "just" war and rejected both communism and "laissez-faire" capitalism as a means of assuring freedom and justice in the world.

William Adolf Viser T. Hoof, general secretary of the world council, said the groups were determined to stay together in what amounts to a covenant between the churches. He said such a covenant would produce a spiritual force in the world to combat intolerance and war.

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 4—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Jane Redden, 82, and John D. Lewis, 81, were married here today—each for the third time.

"This time we're marrying for companionship," Mrs. Lewis declared. Lewis, a retired farmer and brick plant worker, nodded his head in agreement. He is the father of 13 children, seven of who are living and she is the mother of 12, with eight living.

Abdicates After Fifty Year Reign

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Sept. 4—(AP)—The rule over The Netherlands and the Dutch Empire passed today from Queen Wilhelmina to her daughter Juliana.

The historic moment was 11:33 a.m. when Wilhelmina dotted the second "I" of her bodily inscribed signature on the instrument of abdication. The scene was the Moses Hall of the Royal Palace on Dam Square.

Then in the climax of her golden jubilee celebration of 50 years on the throne, the 68-year-old queen stepped out onto a palace balcony with her 39-year-old successor and led the cheers from 19,000 subjects for their new queen.

Long Live Our Queen

Waving her arms like a girl drum major, the old queen exclaimed: "I count myself happy to be able to exclaim together with all of you. Long live our Queen."

Wilhelmina was animated and gay. Juliana was chic and radiant but red-eyed, apparently from crying during the moving ceremonies of succession in the house of Orange-Nassau. The abdication was in a private, governmental ceremony under the Moses painting by the 18th century artist Jacob De Wit. Only the highest government officials were witnesses.

Thanks People

Wilhelmina and Juliana emerged on the balcony with 37-year-old Prince Bernhard, husband of the new queen. The old queen told her people in firm tones:

"I esteem it a favor to be able to inform you myself that I have just signed the abdication. I thank you for the complete confidence which you have given me for the past 50 years."

Juliana dropped her prepared speech in the emotional display as her mother kissed her. The old queen, now dowager princess of the Netherlands by her own choice of the by the communist, leftwing socialists were said to be suddenly wary of the merger in view of the crack in the supposedly solid communist front.

Expresses Regret

"I thank you, dear mother," the auburn-haired queen said, "that you have introduced me in this way." She then expressed regret that the old lady was retiring to her country residence at Apeldoorn and said:

"Together we go forward courageously. Long live our country." Juliana will be formally installed as queen at an investiture service Monday in the 16th century Nieuwe Kerk, now connected with the palace by a canopy of symbolic fish-netting.

The old queen retired after presenting her daughter to the throng so the new regime could receive an undivided show of attention.

Later the new queen took her first official drive through the gaily bedecked city with the three elder princesses and Prince Bernhard.

Labor Day Takes Heavy Toll In Traffic Mishaps

By The Associated Press

Traffic mishaps took the lives of at least 37 persons Friday night and Saturday as millions jammed the highways at the start of the three-day Labor Day observance.

Three other persons drowned, and three more died violently of miscellaneous causes attributed to the holiday.

The National Safety Council predicts that at least 260 persons will die in traffic accidents over the weekend. The council estimates that 100,000,000 persons in 30,000,000 vehicles will be on the streets and highways during the three days.

The Labor Day weekend death toll from traffic last year was 293. In addition, 81 persons died by drowning and 77 perished in miscellaneous accidents.

ORGANIZED LABOR NOW IS REAL PART OF THE AMERICAN TEAM

Approaching the third postwar Labor Day, American workers find that the worst has failed to materialize and the best is hopefully yet to come. The fear of widespread unemployment and loss of wages which gripped so many at the war's end has not been translated into reality. The great boom and bust has failed to materialize.

Thus the country's organized workers are more a part of the American team than they were three years ago. That is a healthy and happy situation, and the unions' rank and file have played a big part in bringing it about.

This year has been one of growing labor peace and stability. There have been strikes, of course, and some have been bitter. There have been threats of other strikes that would have been economically disastrous. But the disastrous ones have been prevented—in two instances by government intervention, but in the others by agreement.

This has also been the year of the Taft-Hartley Law. Labor Day speeches will contain a lot of angry words about that law. Yet union membership and the average pay of that membership have increased under it. And a provision of the Taft-Hartley Law, coupled with the formation of Henry Wallace's third party, has produced one of the most notable achievements of the labor year.

That achievement has been the determination to wrest the divisive, subversive, cynical power from Communists who have infiltrated many of our unions. There are still Communists in important union posts. But they are fewer, and they are recognized, and their position is insecure.

A law which made them stand up and be counted as Communists, and a party already marked by Communist support and policy, put them on the spot. Union members and their non-Communist officers acted with swift determination. Their action has removed a large part of the growing malignancy that threatened the healthy body of the labor movement.

So today the agitation for class struggle is weaker. Today fewer organized workers are listening to those who preached to them that they were a separate and exploited class apart. Fewer of them are lending innocent support to their enemies within their own ranks.

The result is that organized labor as a whole thinks of itself as a body of Americans and second as a distinct division of American society. Labor has its own special problems and rights and duties, as always. But their recognition and achievement promise now to be reached more in balance with the good of our whole society. For the welfare of the nation and the welfare of its workers are inseparable and identical.

Many Suffer 'Peace Fatigue,' The Most Common Disease

By Hal Boyle

New York.—(AP)—Peace fatigue—was any man ever sent to the hospital for that? No.

Yet that has worn out more men than all the horrors of wartime.

What breaks a man down? What causes him to be less than he needs to be to keep his version of civilization going?

This is really the key question of the modern world—why do people crack up?

It boils down to one word: Strain.

Look at it again: s-t-r-a-i-n.

That is one of the most important words in the American vocabulary today. And there is a word for it in every language in the world.

Doctors Don't Admit It

Yet you hardly ever see it in the medical realm. The closest the modern doctor comes to it is this new-fangled thing called a "psysomatic ailment."

This is really only a numbo-jumbo word for something the old-time family doctor recognized long ago—that someone with a mental problem too big for him to solve ended up by coming down with a physical ailment, even though he previously had been healthy as a horse is supposed to be.

Actually, horses aren't healthy. They are very nervous.

But those who bet on horses—humans—are even more fretful.

I fret, for instance, over the insistence by some members of the army's medical corps that there is no such thing as "shell shock."

Having seen men collapse from fear of injury during a bombardment of artillery shells, I know that "shell shock" existed. What you see you know.

Says "Shell Shock" Real

The medical term created in the second world war—"combat fatigue"—is only a glossy compromise to please some of the high brass who thought that "shell shock" was only a contagious state of mind left over from the first world war. But "shell shock" was real.

I also saw men become militarily worthless from "bullet fear," "boredom despondency," "lack-of-action ennui," "miss-my-wife-or-sweet-heart feeling," "loneliness complex," "mortal madness" and "I-hate-my-dumb-officers phobia."

But they discarded that old-fashioned term "shell shock" and made everybody feel sorry for the new sick heroes by lumping them together as "combat fatigue" cases. Yet some of the sickest men who never heard a shot fired in sorrow and still they were truly mentally sick—I would be the last to say they weren't. The men I know who earned medals were very reluctant to name another soul a coward.

Predict 260 Will Die On Highways Over Weekend

The nation began another mass migration of holiday vacationing today with a National Safety Council prediction that 260 persons will be killed in traffic accidents over the weekend.

The Council estimated that 100,000,000 persons will be on the move in 30,000,000 vehicles in observance of Labor Day. Over the same holiday weekend last year, 293 persons were killed in traffic mishaps, 77 in miscellaneous accidents, and 81 drowned.

The highest death toll in celebration of a holiday this year occurred on the July 4 weekend when 571 persons died—306 in traffic, 69 from miscellaneous accidents, four from fireworks, and 192 drownings.

Only three deaths were reported in Friday night's first wave of holiday traffic. Maryland, Ohio and Washington each had one traffic fatality.

4-H Club Federation Chooses New Officers

Officers were elected by the Morgan County 4-H Club Federation at a meeting held Wednesday night at Farm Bureau Hall.

The new officers are Virginia
Muntman of the Ashbury Girl's 4-H club, president; Richard Kimbrough,
East Side Juniors, vice president;
Marian Stewart, Berea club, secretary-treasurer; and Wilma Munt-man, Ashbury club, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Also appointed at the meeting was a program committee consisting of Vera Jett of the Ebenezer club,
Carol LaKamp of the Chapin Top
Notchers, Darrell Smith of the Berea Ag club, Darrell Roegge of the Victory 4-H club, and Sue Ransdell of the Franklin Girl's 4-H club.

To Meet Sept. 15
This committee will meet Sept. 15 with the president and vice president to outline the program for the next six months.

Frances Swain presided over the meeting and Elizabeth Newbery acted as secretary. Delegates from eight 4-H clubs in the county were present.

Following the election of officers,
a discussion period took place. Ways were discussed in which money could be raised to provide for Morgan county's contribution to the Western District 4-H camp.

Also discussed were ways to stimulate interest in 4-H activities which will lead to increased membership.
A suggestion was made to hold a banquet for project honor and the outstanding 4-H club member. It was also suggested that spring rallies be held in different parts of the county.

Also up for consideration were activities in which the federation can participate during the next six months.

THE STORY: Hilary Shenstone, British secret agent, recalls lying wounded in the Indian desert beside a crashed plane, after completing a dangerous mission. He remembers feeling a desperate need to return to England and Yana Farthing, his family's country home. Next thing Hilary is aware of, he is back in London dropping in at his club. But no one seems conscious of his presence. Hilary learns that his brother, George, has been cutting in with Alice, Hilary's fiancée. He thinks it's all a dream until he overhears a report of his own death. Shocked at first, Hilary later decides to visit the situation. Next day he visits his mother's town house. George and his mother are awaiting Alice for lunch. They, too, seem unaware of his presence. Hilary hears his mother encourage George to win Alice away from him.

"YOU needn't look so innocent, George, you weren't born yesterday," said his mother, and amongst her regard for her respect, from their separate viewpoints. "I don't believe Hilary cares tuppence about Alice anyway," she remarked defiantly.

"She thinks he does," said George. "It amounts to the same thing."

"No—it doesn't," she contradicted. "Besides, she wouldn't be happy with him. I mean—" she added quickly, and then hesitated. "—that is—I don't think she would," she finished lamely.

"Why?" demanded Hilary.

She went to drawing little meaningless things on a fresh sheet of note-paper.

"What makes you say I couldn't have made her happy?" Hilary pressed her.

"I wasn't—very happy," said his mother just above a whisper, watching the busy point of her pen. "And Hilary's exactly like his father."

That jerked George out into the open.

"Oh, here, I say—I always thought you and the governor hit it off together fairly well—" he exclaimed, shocked.

HIS mother bit her lip, and drew a row of little circles on the paper and then went along the line putting dots in the center of each one, tidily. George was staring at her, ice-tongs in hand.

"I shouldn't have said anything," she murmured at last, very low. "I was only trying to help you, George."

"But of course, mum—say anything you like! Only—" George put down the ice-tongs, poured out half a glass of the White Lady, and drank it up.

"It's me you're trying to help," Hilary told her a bit grimly. "You remember me, don't you, mother—I'm the younger one."

"Only it was a bit of a shock!" said George, setting down the glass.

"Yes, I suppose it was," she admitted, connecting the rows of circles with little rows of dots. "Of course we never—never quarreled, you know. And he never—never threw things at me!" The corners of her mouth deepened in her still girlish smile. "But—"

"But what?" insisted Hilary.

She gave a guilty sort of glance over her shoulder, as though to make sure that only George was in the room, and her voice dropped still lower.

"I'm—saying whatever comes into my head this morning, George, because I love you, and I want you to be happy. And I'd like to see Alice have what I never had—security, and a settled feeling. You see, George, you're not strictly a Shenstone. You're my own son, I always think, from the McAndrews side. You'd make Alice a good husband and father to her children, which is more than I can say for Hilary, and that's the truth. It wouldn't be the wretched, one-sided sort of thing I had to put up with all my life—while your father was alive—" Her voice broke suddenly, and she rested her head on her left hand, shielding her face.

"I—I don't know quite what's come over me this morning. I know I shouldn't be saying these dreadful things out loud. But it's not fair, George, it's not fair to Alice that I love like my own daughter, not to warn her! I don't want her to live as I had to live, always in deadly fear that her man won't come back—and the rest of the time hoping, praying that he won't go away again! And always knowing that it's no use, that he's bound to be off again soon—so soon—"

"But, mum, good heavens, you had the War," George reminded her futilely.

"It wasn't just during the War, George. Even before that started, he was always doing something for the Home Office that nobody else dared to do. Once he went to Russia about spies. Once he was down in Limerick for six days and nights without sending me one word. Once they sent him to Egypt, and I didn't hear for two months—like Hilary now, out there on the Border. It's no marriage, it's no life for a woman—to love people like Hilary! Don't let her, George," she entreated him hysterically. "Don't let Hilary have Alice!"

"I see," said Hilary.

"Mater, for heaven's sake—" George was genuinely horrified. "You really must pull yourself together!"

"Hullo, am I late or anything?" said Alice from the doorway. She saw Mrs. Shenstone's tears then, and halted with a child's embarrassed impulse to back out of the room, followed by a quick anxiety. "Oh, sorry—Hinton said—"

"No, of course not—no news at all," Mrs. Shenstone recovered quickly, and wiped her eyes. "Come in, dear—you're not a bit late. George is going to make some cocktails. Luncheon will be ready in a minute. I must just go and see about the flowers—"

She hurried away, blowing her nose briskly as she went.

Bosox Whip Athletics To Retain A. L. Lead

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—(P)—The Boston Red Sox made three of their eight hits, a walk and two Philadelphia mistakes good for three runs in the eighth inning today as they whipped the Athletics 5-2 and retained their leadership of the American league.

The late uprising that snapped a 2-2 deadlock came on singles by Bill Goodman, Bill Hitchcock and Dom DiMaggio, a walk to Pitcher Ellis Kihder, an error by Pete Suder and Phil Marchildon's wild pitch.

The Athletics had scored twice in the sixth on Ferris Fain's sixth homer of the year and hits by Hank Majeski and Sam Chapman.

The Red Sox, making it two straight over the Mackmen, scored their other two runs on Ted Williams' double and Stan Spence's triple in the third and Hitchcock's first homer of the year in the fourth.

Football Practice Draws 45 Men For White Hall Squad

By John Campbell

White Hall—Coach S. N. Walker is beginning his fifth year as coach at White Hall and reports 45 candidates out for daily practice on the gridiron. Ten lettermen are out for the 1948 team and several are big fellows as they have worked this summer and gained weight.

The lettermen returning are Ken Barnd, Shirley Anderson, Phil Strang, Bennett Roodhouse, Russell Howard, Richard Washburn, Truman Short, Bill DeShazer, Benny Secor and Delbert Monroe. Coach Walker has several fine reserves on his squad this season and his team will have plenty of weight in the forward wall and a very speedy backfield.

White Hall won the Ivy title back in 1929 and has finished second many times. Coach Walker had three consecutive teams in second place during his first three seasons here.

The Maroons play the Carrollton Hawks here on Sept. 17 in a night game and then the following week play at Roodhouse in an afternoon struggle on Sept. 24. Both of these games are non-conference games and the Winchester eleven will play White Hall in the Ivy opener at Winchester Sept. 30 under the lights. Coach Walker is well pleased with his freshman crop this time as fourteen are out for practice and the entire squad has a lot of enthusiasm for this early in the season.

The Maroons are rated a contender for the title and it depends on the heavy line and fast backfield to work as a unit with the key men showing the way. Ken Barnd, fleet halfback for the Maroons, is playing his fourth consecutive year at that position for the White Hall eleven and he has the distinction of scoring the most touchdowns in Ivy games the past three years.

Last year he went for many long touchdowns runs, 90 yards in the game at Greenfield; 75 yards against Carrollton and 70 against Jerseyville, besides long runs of 65 yards in the Winchester and Pleasant Hill games. Other boys that will team with Barnd in the fast backfield are Ron Milnes, quarterback; Ben Secor, fullback and Dick Washburn, halfback.

The 1948 football schedule for the White Hall Maroons:

Sept. 17—Carrollton here non-conference (night)

Sept. 24—At Roodhouse non-conference

Sept. 30—At Winchester (night)

Oct. 8—At Jerseyville (night)

Oct. 14—At Carrollton (night)

Oct. 22—Greenfield here (night)

Oct. 29—Pleasant Hill here (night)

Nov. 5—Pittsfield here (night)

Nov. 11—Roodhouse here.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Sept. 4.—(P)—Steady prices ruled in all meat animals on the livestock market today. Hogs sold in a range of $25 to $29.50, which left them 75 cents to $1.25 lower for the week. A drop in wholesale pork prices contributed to the slump in hogs.

Another new record high was set in the cattle section as the smallest run of the year was unloaded here. A top of $41.50 was paid for prime steers. Most good and choice steers sold at $33 to $40.75. Final prices on steers and heifers for the week were steady to $1 higher.

While sheep receipts at 12 leading markets were all above last week, the run continued small here. But this market was influenced by the larger arrivals around the market circle. Slaughter lambs lost $1 to $2.

WHEAT IS WEAKEST CEREAL ON BOARD; DEMAND IS LIGHT

Chicago, Sept. 4.—(P)—With a long week-end holiday coming up, the grain market was allowed to drift today.

There was no real pressure on the market, but demand was very light. Some selling in wheat came from the southwest, and this cereal was the weakest on the board. The July, 1949, contract fell more than 2 cents at times.

Corn acted better than wheat. Prices in the cash market were a little easier, but did not duplicate yesterday's sharp break. Oats eased under the brunt of fairly heavy local selling in the September contract. Rye dropped a bit while soybeans showed little change.

Wheat closed 14-21 lower, September $2.20, corn was 8 lower to 2 higher, September $1.62-1.62. Oats were 12 to 2 cents lower, September 71-11, rye was 11-13 lower, December $1.53 and soybeans were 1 higher, November $2.49.

In the cash market, No. 1 yellow corn sold at $1.92 to $1.93. This was about in line with yesterday's late sales, but down a few cents from early sales yesterday.

Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carlots here today—wheat 7, corn 99, oats 21, rye 9, barley 17 and soybeans 3.

Fitzsimmons reunion, Sunday, Sept. 12, Nichols Park.

Chicago Cash Grain

Chicago, Sept. 4.—(P)—No wheat: Corn No. 1 yellow $1.92-93; No. 2, $1.92; No. 3, $1.90; oats No. 1 heavy mixed 74; No. 1 white 76; No. 3, 75; barley matting $1.20-62 nominal; feed $1.05-26 nominal. Field seed per hundredweight nominal: Sweet Clover $41.00-43.00; Timothy $8.50-10.00.

Turnesa Wins Amateur Golf Championship

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 4.—(P)—William Peter Turnesa, 34-year-old "kid brother" of the famous golfing clan, won his second United States amateur championship today with a 2 and 1 victory over Ray Billows in an all-New York final completed in a drizzling rain.

It was one of the most fantastic finishes of all the 48 tournaments played, electrifying a crowd of 2,500 that had followed the finalists through 27 holes of dismal mediocre play, over the 6,617-yard Memphis Country Club course.

Turnesa, the tiny automaton from Elmsford, N. Y., turned into the last nine holes with a two-up advantage only to see Billows rack up three holes in a row to go ahead.

The jovial, pipe-smoking salesman from Poughkeepsie won them with par-eagle-par, lacing two brilliant shots on the 465-yard 29th and sinking a 10-foot nudge for the lone eagle of the match.

Turnesa, the fire extinguisher man, put out Billows' flame by taking the next three holes with two pars and a birdie to regain his previous margin.

He then played the 34th and 35th in steady pars for halves to clinch the victory.

For Turnesa the triumph came 10 years almost to the day after he defeated Pat Abbott, 8 and 7, for the U. S. crown at Oakmont Country Club in Pittsburgh.

Hogan, Mangrum Tied In Reno Open Golf Tournament

Reno, Nev., Sept. 4.—(P)—Ben Hogan, Lloyd Mangrum and Dick Metz were tied today in the Reno $25,000 Open Golf tournament, with halfway scores of 136.

The three were the tournament co-favorites. Hogan of Hershey, Pa., had 69-67, Mangrum of Niles, Ill., 68-68; and Metz of Arkansas City, Kas., and Virginia Beach, Va., 68-68.

Hogan, holder of the U.S. Open, Western Open and P.G.A. titles, shot the Washoe County club course today in 36-33. Mangrum, ex-national champion, turned in a 33-35. Metz, an outsider in the betting, came home with 35-33.

The trio, as they prepared to start the third round of the 72-hole event tomorrow, were eight strokes under par.

Mangrum missed a three-foot putt on the 15th green today, which cost him the lead.

Hogan shared the first round lead with amateur Frank Toranzo of Sacramento, who took 73 shots today to be well up with a total of 140.

Crush Aussy Hopes

In Davis Cup Meet

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 4.—(P)—

It took Frankie Parker and Ted

Schroeder just about three hours and 15 minutes today to crush and bury Australia's hopes of taking the glistening Davis Cup back to the land down under.

In one of the most disastrous routs

in Cup history, Parker humbled Bill

6-4, 6-4, 6-4, and Schroeder humiliated the 35-year-old Adrian Quist,

6-3, 4-6, 6-0, 6-0.

So one-sided was the opening day's competition that the 8,000-odd who sat in the big horseshoe tennis stadium had few chances to cheer.

Quist, once one of the world's great tennis players, gave a sad spectacle as he lost 12 straight games to Schroeder. He practically gave up.

All the Americans need to win the international trophy for the third straight time is one victory in the three remaining matches, and they almost surely will get that tomorrow

when Gardner Mulloy and Billy Tal-

Mother Of Denver Mayor May Marry Ex-Publisher

A copy of the Denver Rocky Mountain News, brought to the Journal and Courier office Saturday night by Louis Foster, 812 South West street, contains an item which will be of interest to many of the older Jacksonville residents.

The story says that the most talked-up society story in Denver is the rumored forthcoming marriage of Mrs. James Quigg Newton, Denver social leader and mother of Mayor James Quigg Newton to George Clendenin of Springfield.

Friends say Mrs. Newton and Mr. Clendenin have been acquainted since school days. She was Miss Nelle Singleton before her marriage to Mr. Newton, Denver financier who died in 1944. She was born in Jacksonville.

Mr. Clendenin is a former official of the Illinois State Register of Springfield. He is now rent control director for the Springfield-Decatur district.

Members of the Country club set have been openly hinting at Mrs. Newton's wedding plans for several weeks. Altho Mrs. Newton's family has declined to comment, intimates of the socialite widow say the announcement may be made Sunday, Sept. 5.

If the announcement is made, it will come right on the heels of the wedding of Mrs. Newton's daughter, Ruth Newton Pierce, who married the millionaire department store director, Frederic Gimbel of New York, early in August.
